MCQG July 2024 Minutes

Regina York, President called the meeting to order following our picnic lunch. She welcomed four guests and read the "Quilter's Will" which was appreciated by all.

Regina introduced Cassidy Tanck, the winner of the $500 scholarship. Cassidy shared that she will be going to Fort Scott Community College first and hopes to transfer to K-State to finish her degree in personal finance. Although she is not a quilter, she has an interest in fiber arts. She showed us several of her entries for the Miami County Fair which were well received by guild members.

Member Updates: Chris Wheaton's mother passed away recently. Karen Ulanski-Swank's sister Pat is engaged. Mayme Easton has a fractured vertebra. Vicki Bledsoe's mother passed away. Elaine and Frank Elliot celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary, and Elaine was wearing her new beautiful ring to prove it!

There was one correction to last month's minutes. It was noted that the time for July's picnic should have been listed in the minutes (6:00 pm). Cee Kueser moved and Nancy Hart-Kline seconded that the minutes should be approved as corrected. The motion passed.

Treasurer's report: Cee Kueser reviewed the activities from June. We currently have a total of $14,429.63 in our accounts. This does not count the $947.00 made from the garage sale. Cee also reported that she has placed the CD funds into one account for 60 months. Nancy Hart-Kline moved and Helen Kennon seconded that the treasurer's report be accepted. The motion passed.

Correspondence: A thank you note from Cassidy Tanck was read regarding her scholarship. Two thank you notes from Agape Christian Center in Louisburg were read thanking us for our donations to their food pantry.

Membership: Names of people who have not picked up their directory and pin were read and given to those in attendance or to people who can get them to their friends.

Upcoming programs: At the August meeting, there will be presentations on borders. On August 17, Jane Drugg will have a workshop on the Pineapple Block. Bring fabric for the project, general sewing supplies, and an Add-a-Quarter Ruler.

Disaster Quilts: No new disasters to report. There are quilt tops that need to be quilted. Ginger Gail will bind them when you are finished.

Community Service: It was discussed that a few more Busy Buddy kits are needed.

Michelle Pixler reported that the garage sale was a big success. A lot was cleared out, and she thanked those people who did a great job of placing the fabric and tools in good spots for sale.

Opportunity Quilt will be displayed at the Louisburg Farmer's Market on Saturday, August 3, from 7 to 11.

MCQG Quilt Show: Branda Jenkins and Janna Renner reported. Forms for the quilts are on the front table as well as forms for the bed turning which will be baby quilts this year. Don't forget your silent auction quilts and boutique items. If you have boutique items, include the price, your initials, and the day and month of your birth for identification purposes. Crochet items will be happily accepted. The categories for quilts were read, there were some new categories this year. The scissor sharpener will only attend on Sunday. Bookmarks are available that can be dropped off at quilt shops as well as other areas of interest.

Jane Drugg presented the Block of the Month. Connie Epp won the drawing.

Brenda Mosley discussed The Zoom Sewing Day which will be the third Thursday between 10 and 3 or 4 o'clock. She asked members to vote on the name of the day which will be announced in August.

Vote on new officers was conducted. The slate was unanimously agreed upon as read. They will be sworn in next January.

Old Business:

The fall retreat is October 26 to 28. Price is similar to last year's. Kid's camp went well. The kids had fun and there were lots of completed projects. It was announced that at KCQRF there will be classes for kids 18 and under available. The price will be a little lower than most class costs.

December-Cee Kueser

New Business:

Janna Renner shared that some people can't hear the meeting or the speakers in the auditorium so perhaps we may want to start meeting downstairs again. Brooks has offered to put up and take down chairs for us. The downstairs space is cheaper. A microphone can be used downstairs. The motion passed. We need more information about how we can make up for the cost of the money already paid for the auditorium space. Regina will discuss this with Brooks.

July birthdays were read.

Don't forget the Fair.
