MCQG June 2024 Minutes

Regina York, morning president, called the meeting to order June 6th at the Paola Community Center. 49 people were in attendance in the morning session, including several visitors. In the evening meeting 17 members were present, with one guest, Shelly Krull.

Minutes- There was one correction of last month's minutes, regarding spelling of Lorna McCrea's name. Evening noted that Jessica Drugg's phone number was not correct. The amended minutes were approved in the morning meeting, after a motion by Cindy Toburen and second from Diane Burnett. Evening meeting approved following motion by Cindy Toburen and second from Mayme Easton.

Correspondence- Three pieces of correspondence were read, two thank you letters from the Miami County Cancer Society and one from the Agape Center.

Treasurer's Report- Income for May was 11 cents interest. Expenses for programs, workshops and retreat totaled $4,361.68. Cee noted that we had significant "income" regarding the retreat the month prior to balance out the bills related for the retreat in this report. Total monies from checking and other accounts, $15,460.09. Morning members voted unanimously to accept the treasurer's report following a motion from Helen Kennon and second by Cindy Wilbur. Evening meeting approved the report also by acclamation.

Membership update- Congratulations to Laura Bergman\Abby Prettyman on the birth of a new daughter\granddaughter. Condolences to Beth and Angela Matthews on the death of Beth's husband, Angela's father-in-law. Theresa Pritchard had shoulder surgery today. Update provided on past member Shasta Reynolds, dealing with significant health issues.

Birthdays

Programs- Members were reminded that there will be many fun activities at Liberty Mo., June 8 including quilts displayed on the square and tote bags for the first 100 at the Liberty quilt store. Guild members are going on their own, no guild planned transport or meeting. Kathy Ghoul was present today to register quilt entries for the Miami County Fair.

Today's program is Rhonda Denney, speaking on Pigment Patchwork- How Did I get There?

Today is the last day to sign up for the Kid's Camp.

Disaster Quilts- Cee Kueser delivered a quilt to the boy who lost his mother and sister in a fire. Members noted that there was a house fire reported in Paola last week.

Community Service- Regina reported that members have picked up and completed many of the Busy Buddy outfits, a few remain in the back to be completed.

Opportunity Quilt 2024- Regina has the Opportunity Quilt back, since the Kansas Nebraska shop hop ended. Thanks to Jenny at Lil Red Hen for the space to display and selling of tickets during the shop hop. Talk to Regina if you want to take the quilt somewhere to sell tickets.

Opportunity Quilt 2025- No new information

Block of the Month- Jane Drugg previewed the block for next month, featuring red, blue and flag material. Winner in the morning was Pat Noel. Blocks from the evening meeting were won by Jeanie Ainsworth. Several Dresden blocks were also dropped off. These will be incorporated into a charity quilt, so please bring more blocks if you have them. David Duwe will bring more pieces to the July meeting.

Kansas City Regional Quilt Show- Diane Burnett reported that the vote on how to disburse funds will be July 20, to be reported in August. Nancy Hart-Kline encouraged members on Facebook to start linking information for the show to help increase knowledge and interest.

Miami County Quilt Guild Show- Branda Jenkins reported that the committee is meeting regularly to plan. Please share information about access to Featherweight repair and cleaning as well as knife and scissor sharpening. Kathy Havelka brought copies of the categories and entry forms for the show. Entry forms will be accepted through the September meeting date. Kathy asked members to look back and send her information to help clarify what number this show will be, i.e. 45th. We want to be able to plan when
