posts regularly on "Quilting and Sewing Deals". During the June meeting, Kathy Ghoull will be present to help get quilts for the county fair entered. This will save you waiting in long hot lines at fair time.

On Saturday, June 8th, we are planning a car pool to Liberty, MO. Quilting Is My Therapy quilt shop (owned by Angela Walters) is having their annual quilt walk. There will be a presentation by Jenny Doan from Missouri Star – there is a charge for this & you will need to get on the Quilting Is My Therapy website to purchase your ticket. Hurry as these are close to being sold out.

Disaster Quilts – Ginger Vail confirmed that distribution of our charity quilts by the Miami Sherriff's Department is going well.

Community Service – Michelle Garrard has contacted the guild about our interest in working on Busy Buddy dolls for the Alzheimer's Associations. She presented in person at the evening meeting.

Opportunity Quilt 2024 – The quilt is hanging at the Lil Red Hen thru the end of May – for the Kansas Nebraska Shop Hop. Jenny has sold over $36.00 in tickets.

Opportunity Quilt 2025 – No new information

Block of the Month – Jane Drugg previewed the block for next month, featuring spring colors of your choice, using white for background. Winner of the BOM squares in the morning was Connie Epp. Block winner for the evening meeting was Lacey Bostick.

Kansas City Regional Quilt Show – Diane Burnett reported that at the next meeting there will be a vote about how to disburse funds from the show to the 17 guilds. Funds from the last show were dispersed evenly to all guilds. There is consideration being given to disperse funds based on hours worked. Our guild has had the highest number of hours of service in past shows. Dates of the show are June 12 – 14, 2025 (June 11 will be the judging day, and our guild works in this category). Be thinking ahead on how you might want to volunteer. Nancy Hart-Kline talked about the challenge quilt opportunity. Check the web page for details and consider creating a quilt to enter. Guidelines are there, but are not as strict as the first year.

Miami County Quilt Guild Show- Janna Renner encouraged members to create items for the boutique, encouraging folks who crochet to consider making scrubbers. Discussed the difference between minis for the quilt auction and items for the boutique. There will not be a buy it now option.

New business: Jerry Heffling said quilts are still needed for the Extension Office in June and September. Reminder that the Guild Garage Sale will be at the Community Center on Saturday, June 29. Assistance will be needed on Friday evening to help organize and sign up. Items can also be dropped off Friday evening.

Old business – Regina York and Cindy Toburen met with Brooks to discuss our use and costs related to the Community Center. Brooks is going to work on holding our costs stable. We average 3x a month use. We may consider moving meetings to the basement again, to help with sound, cost, and Brooks will set up and tear down.

Birthdays – May birthdays were read & members were invited to come pick a fat quarter.

Announcements – Laura Davids is still collecting the presidents' blocks for Regina Yorks' quilt until the July meeting - to hopefully be presented at the December potluck meeting. There is a container on the check in table for the morning & evening meetings. The quilt blocks members make to donate should be red & white, any pattern, & size should be any size that is divisible by 3 (3", or 6" finished). There is a red pen in the container for members to sign the blocks they are donating – please return the pen to the container.

Adjournment – Morning members voted unanimously to adjourn following a motion by Diane Burnett & second from Marilyn Chandler. Evening meeting adjourned on motion by Cindy Toburen & second from Jessica Drugg.
